

Cattle Ranges -

Summer and Winter

Charles Gandy
Miner and Son

Utah ... A Palette of Parks

Utah has five astonishing national parks. Zion, Canyonlands, Arches, Bryce Canyon, Capitol Reef. Their names conjure up sweeping visions of classic western landscapes. Titanic rock monoliths cutting skyward from emerald green canyons. Grotesque sandstone shapes teetering atop long spines of rock. The world's largest assortment of wind-sculpted stone arches, many extending hundreds of feet, standing in supreme delicacy. Pink and purple, orange and yellow, red and gold rock eroded into an infinity of columns, spires, pinnacles and windows.

Utah also has six national monuments. Rainbow Bridge, the largest natural bridge in the world, stands as tall as the U.S. Capitol Building. It graces the shores of Lake Powell. Dinosaur National Monument is a working dinosaur quarry bristling

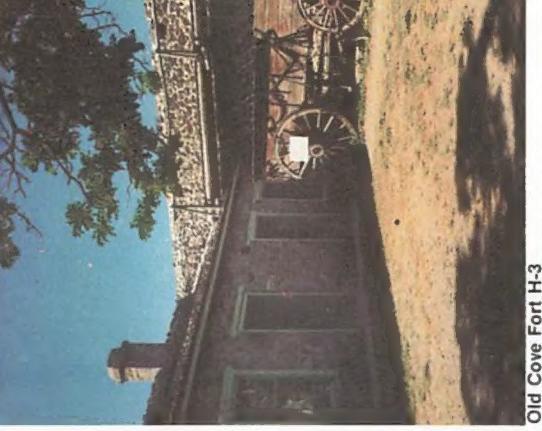

There are 12 state park scenic areas, 11 state historic areas and 21 state water recreation areas. Utah's state parks offer everything from exploring the Escalante Petrified Forest to golfing in the alpine splendor of Wasatch Mountain State Park to studying Indian pictographs at Newspaper Rock.

Or you can wander aimlessly over more than 8 million acres in any of Utah's seven national

Alpine Loop Scenic Drive E-5

Old Cove Fort H-3

Yachting, Kayaking,

Imagine hiking out under full sail on a sloop on an inland saltwater sea. Rhode Island and surrounded by the Great Salt Lake is dotted with sail Lake Powell lures boaters deep into the country with the unique pleasure of being within protective enormous reservoirs. Powell's twisting shoreline is longer than the East Coast of the United States.

Or hang on as you shoot the rapids in legendary canyons like Desolation and the Cataract.

Half of Utah's 44 state parks have Fishing is good throughout Utah. This is the only place in the world you can catch Bonneville trout.

Fishermen love to try their luck at fishing. The largest German Brown trout ever caught in the United States came from near Provo. Mount Holly and Elk Meadows are east of Beaver and Brian Head lies east of Cedar City. Beaver Mountain is northeast of Logan. Utah's challenging slopes and hip-deep powder will electrify you.

Salt Lake City

Long known as the "Crossroads of the West," Salt Lake is the largest city from Phoenix to Canada and from Denver to San Francisco.

Salt Lake offers a broad spectrum of restaurant cuisine, art galleries, museums, theaters and clubs. The richly decorated Capitol Theater is the only theater between the East and West coasts specifically created for dance. The Utah Opera Company performs there as well.

The Utah Symphony plays in stately Symphony Hall. The world-famous Mormon Tabernacle Choir sings regularly in the Tabernacle on Temple Square. Thousands enjoy concerts, rodeos, NBA basketball and pro hockey at the Salt Palace.

The majestic Wasatch Mountains stand shoulder to shoulder in a crescent at the rim of the city. Six lovely canyons, each with its own tumbling creek,

Write or phone us for more information.